This Leffitie person looks like the mak-fuse of a mighty good pitcher. It is cody to see how he has been wiming all his games against the Western clubs. He had good control, the necessary speed, and a fast-breaking curve ball. Two Peculiar Errora.

Both Groom and Lafitte are credited with errors, and strange to relate, both were made on exactly the same plays, and in the same inning. Groom tried to catch Ty Cobb napping off first and Lathought he could nail Milan the name way, both pitchers cut loose with boild throws and both Cobb and Milan Taced around to third before the balls

Davy Jones opened the game by plant-ing the ball just out of Conroy's reach. Bush smarified him to second. Cobb sent a screeching single into right center, and Jones raced home. Millan danced ever to third, and came home when Germany Schaefer dumped a single into left field. Lelivelt hit a sizzler at Delebanty. The half bounced oft Da's shins into Lafitte's waiting pawn, and Lelivelt was ghrown out and incidentally robbed of a bit, Germany Schaefer west to third on the play, Gessler walked, and a minite later tried to pull off a double steal with Schaefer. The play almost worked, but the Teuton was nipped at the plate on a declaion which might have been rendered either way.

Kahoe is looking over in New Orleans, Johnston is playing a classy game for the Pelicans, but, says Stovall, he is not of big league caliber.

Another Nap, who will be closely watched by the fans, will be Ole Olson, the new shortstop, who comes from the far West with a high-class record. Olson, the select circle, and has produced the goods at the bat. He is booked as a first-string player on the team since Turner was sent to third base.

Last, but not least, of the newer Naps is Joe Jackson, who has been cleetrifing the West by his wonderful all-around work, which has, in the opinion of experts, placed him in the same rank as Cobb of the Present stars, and of Bill Lange, of other days. In the field and at the bat, Jackson has proven a jewel of the first grade, and, in short, has produced the goods. With Jackson hitting to form, Bill Cunningham's record drive is in danger of going by the boards, for the young center fielder is sure one fence breaker.

Manager Stovall, in discussing Gregg last night, said:

"It will not be long before Gregg is

Grover Cleveland Land, the youthful backstop, will do the catching for the Napa this afternoon. Land, since Bemis was relegated to the minors, has been coming at a great pace, and, before the season closes, bids fair to be reckoned among the classy backstops of the league. Besides being a fine all-around receiver. Land is some hitter and his presence in the game adds to the offensive strength of the team. Sid Smith, the old Atlanta and Athletic catcher, may be seen behind the bat while the Napa are here.

With that end in view, and as a means determining his condition, Manager rall, provided he does not use Young Sitovali, provided he does not use Young this week, will send him against the Elizabeth, N. J., team in an exhibition game Sunday. This will give Stovali a line on the veteranz condition and show to what extent he can be used. Incidentally, no one will be more pleased than Hughes when the grounds are changed so that the present short left field will be done away with Hughes relies on his ability to make a batter hit to the field more than he does on striking out the swatter. Just where to play Henry when he has recovered is a problem for Manager McAleer. Schnefer, in the past two games, has played classy ball at the first corner, besides hitting in rare form. Now that the Teuton is in condition it looks as if a place must be made for him. As the rest of the infield is rairly well fortified, it seems as if the initial corner is the one best bet for him.
